

Kidneys Never Cause Backache

Rub pain, soreness, and stiffness right out with "St. Jacobs Oil."

Kidneys cause backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on the ache or tender spot, and instantly the pain, soreness, stiffness, and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache, sciatica, or lumbago pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" stops any pain at once. It is harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. It's the only application to rub on a weak, lame or painful back, or for lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, sprains, or a strain.—Adv.

M'ADOO ENJOYS HIS FIRST FLIGHT ON PACIFIC COAST

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 16.—Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo declared today that he enjoyed every minute of his first airplane flight yesterday at Rockwell field, when he attained a height of 5,500 feet. He was a passenger in a machine driven by Major Henry J. Damm, flying instructor. Mr. McAdoo is here in the interest of the Liberty loan campaign, and is accompanied by Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson.

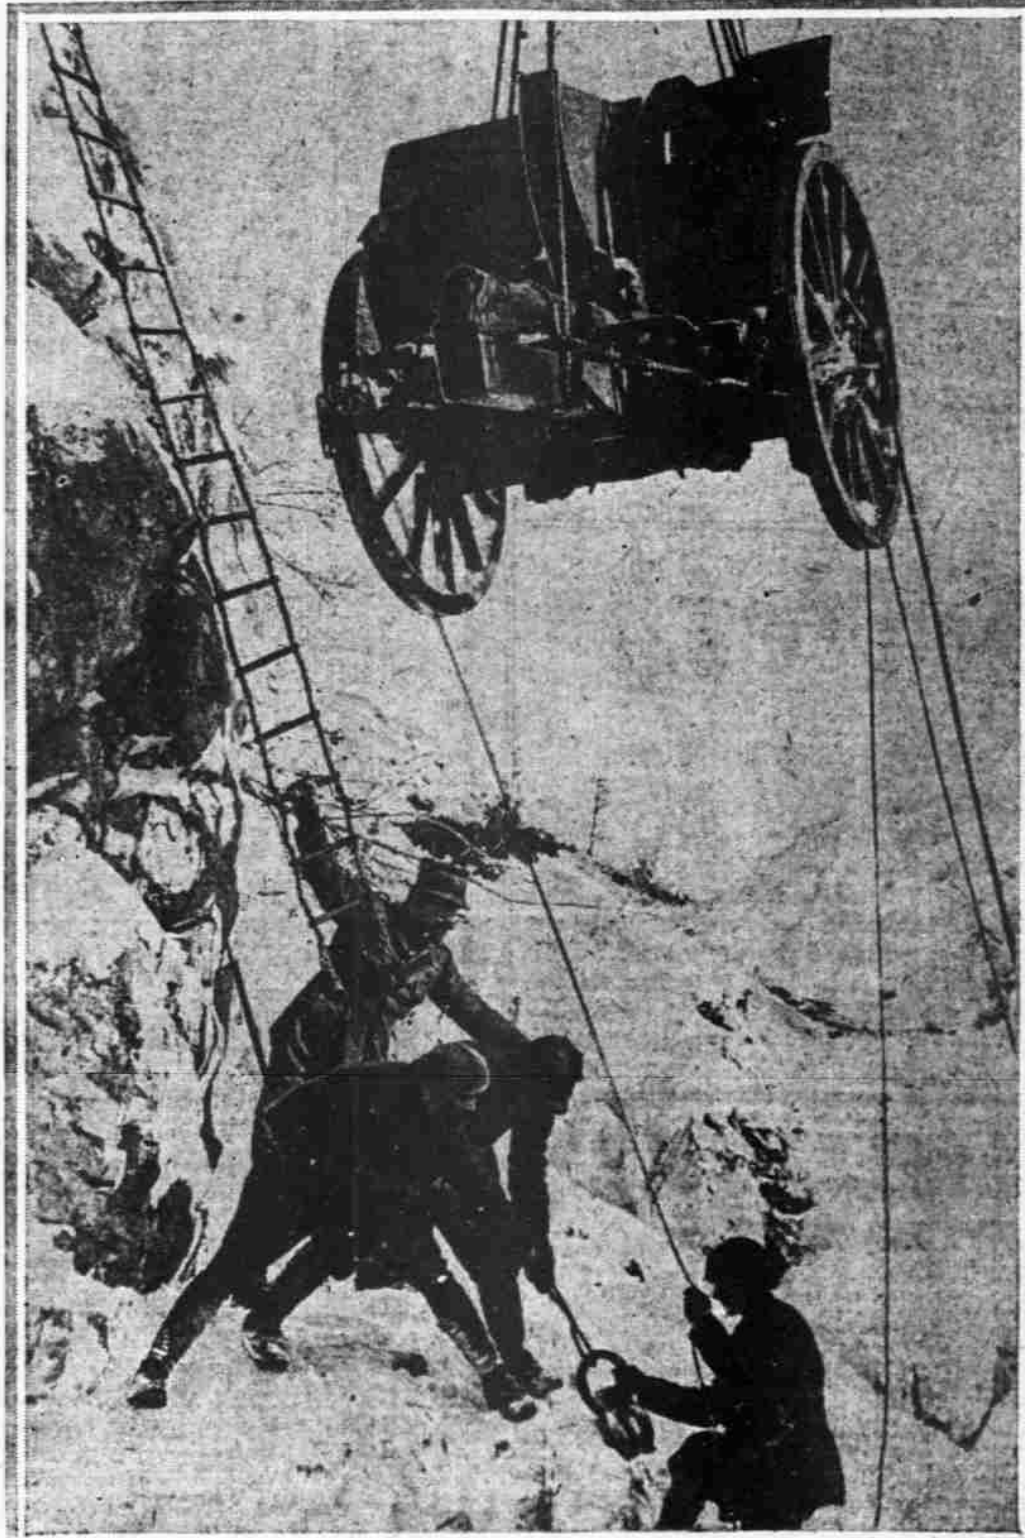

Admiral Grayson also took a flight as the passenger in a machine driven by Lieut. Robert Mairreac, of the French flying corps. They reached a height of 6,000 feet.

Secretary McAdoo made addresses here to the citizens on the Liberty loan and to the aviation corps on the soldiers' and sailors' insurance bill, explaining its provisions.

American soldiers in France are going to serve their country in two-fold measure. Not only will they offer their lives at the front but they will contribute to the Liberty loan, according to today's dispatches which announce that the French government has officially authorized subscriptions to the loan by American soldiers.

A general decree by the French government prohibits subscriptions to foreign loans. The recent action waives the decree in so far as American soldiers are concerned.

What Italians Faced in Isonzo Campaign

Difficulties heretofore deemed insurmountable have been overcome by the Italians in their mountain campaign on the Isonzo front. Their capture of Monte San Gabriele—a veritable Gibraltar in formidability—will go down as one of the greatest feats of the war. The picture shows a squad of troops hoisting a heavy gun up the side of this rocky-peaked mountain. Such a scene was a daily feature of the fight up the steep slopes of the great stronghold.

HOME DEFENSE LEAGUE ENLISTS IN "SMOKES" AID

One hundred and twenty-five representative Washington business and professional men—members of the Home Defense League of the Sixth police precinct—are today actively enlisted in the fight of The Washington Times in raising a fund for soldiers from real American tobacco for our boys in France.

Unanimously adopting a resolution of praise for The Times the league last night went on record as endorsing in every respect The Washington Times Smoke Fund and pledging the active support of every one of its members to make the campaign a signal success.

The resolution was introduced by James S. McCarthy, clerk of the league, and passed unanimously. It calls for the support and aid of every member of the league and calls upon other Washington citizens to come forward and help swell the smoke fund.

"The Home Defense League of the Sixth police precinct heartily indorses the campaign of The Washington Times in raising a fund for soldiers," the resolution read, "and all members are urged to subscribe to the fund and assist in other ways to make it a success."

"The Washington Times deserves the thanks of the entire community for undertaking such a noble work and demonstrating that its patriotism is backed by the thoughtful consideration of the welfare of those who have gone to the battle front to sacrifice their all for the sake of democracy."

Members of the league were instructed to send their contributions to the treasurer, M. J. Hart, or to the smoke fund editor of The Times.

This is the first branch of the Home Defense League in Washington—that organization of substantial men ineligible for military service, who at the beginning of the war saw this as an opportunity to organize for the internal defense of the Capital, to actively assist The Washington Times Tobacco Fund. It is certain, now, that the other branches will not allow this enterprising organization to outdo them in patriotic endeavor.

Today is the best time yet offered Washington citizens to contribute to the fund. For every quarter given now a big quantity of choice tobacco can be had through a special arrangement between The Washington Times and the American Tobacco Company. The French government admits the tobacco without the payment of a duty tax, and the Red Cross agency in France distributes it among the American soldiers in training there free of cost.

Citizens' Duty.

Surely if these great agencies of war can take the time to care for the welfare of American soldiers, the citizens for whose safety and liberty the troops went abroad, can afford to give a small sum—or a large sum—to add to their comfort overseas.

EVEN PASS WON'T EXEMPT PAYING OF THEATER TAX

Movie fans and theatergoers of all descriptions must do their bit. On and after November 1, you'll have to pay Uncle Sam one cent for every dime, one dime for every dollar you spend for show tickets.

It makes not the slightest difference if you are fortunate enough to hold a pass. You'll have to dole out 10 per cent of its value just the same, be it a cabaret, motion picture, theater, or grand opera.

Even the dramatic critics will have to dig down in their pockets in search of 20 cents for every $2 seat they occupy. There is only one way to escape the tax. Go to work as a regular employee of the theater or don the uniform of a police officer and secure assignment to a theater. Bona fide employees and municipal officers on official business are the only exemptions.

Public Must Pay.

There is to be no concealment of the fact that the tax is strictly "on the public." Upon all show tickets will be printed the following information: "This theater is required by law to collect from the purchaser of this ticket U. S. tax of 10 per cent on admission paid," or words to that effect.

House managers will be compelled to list their passes, the house price of the seats so occupied, the number of "standees" admitted, the number of "courtesans" extended to critics. All such information must be embodied in an official and witnessed box office statement to be filed by, and become a part of, the Federal war tax records.

In the case of children under twelve the tax is but 1 cent, regardless of whether the admission paid is 10 cents or $2. Where the maximum charge is 5 cents no tax is levied.

Each Dime Taxed.

The tax on a 10-cent admission is 1 cent; on a 15-cent admission, 2 cents; on a 20-cent admission, 2 cents; on a 25-cent admission, 3 cents; on a 30-cent admission, 3 cents, and so on.

Where a theater desires to charge a flat admission, and pay the tax itself, the public must be advised by it of the admission charge and the Government tax. That is, the motion picture show that would charge 15 cents must show the public that the admission fee is 13 cents and the tax 2 cents. Where a $2 gross charge is made the theater must alter its prices to read $1.90 for admission and 20 cents for the tax.

The duty of the collection of the tax is placed upon the house managers.

Points About The Theater Tax Law

In effect November 1.
Amount of the tax, 10 per cent of the price the purchaser pays for seats or admission.
No tax on tickets costing 5 cents or less.

Theatrical critics and others occupying free seats must pay the tax on the box office price of the locations they occupy.

Persons exempt from the tax: Bona fide employees of places of amusement, municipal officers on official business, such as firemen and policemen, and children less than twelve years old.

Duty of collection placed on the house manager, and returns to Government to be made by sworn box office statements.

ager and not upon the manager of the traveling attraction.
Cabarets cannot escape, even if the proprietor of the hotel or restaurant makes no admission charge to the dining room. It will be at the same rate as the theater tax. Roof Garden theaters, of course, come under the same head.

Collection will be effected under box office statements. They are to be kept daily, signed and sworn to by the house and company managers. These statements should itemize the number of tickets sold at each price. Monthly tabulations of these statements must be made and furnished to the Government upon forms supplied by the collector of internal revenue. Collection will be made in December of the November tax.

Heavy penalties for failure to observe the regulations are imposed. These are noted on forms, which will be sent out as soon as the Treasury Department can have them printed.

No. 2 of a Series of Eye Talks

Our Next Talk Next Tuesday

ARLDY a day passes but what we see people who need glasses—and who know they need glasses—yet because they dislike the idea of having to wear them, put off having their eyes examined.

This is a very serious mistake. Defective vision almost invariably goes "from bad to worse" unless proper corrective measures are followed.

It is, at least, a great satisfaction—even though you must wear glasses—to be able to use your eyes at work or play and to escape the sense of strain experienced by so many.

Don't take chances with anything so valuable as your sight. If you have the least intimation of eye trouble, go to an Oculist for an examination and an expert's advice.

Then, if glasses are ordered, have his prescription filled by an Optician whose experience and skill are unquestioned.
